

Board Resolution

WHEREAS, a resolution on full inclusion of interfaith families and partners from different faith backgrounds is planned to be proposed for adoption by the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) at its 2021 Biennial, with discussion of such a resolution among URJ congregations generally to begin in connection with the 2019 Biennial.

WHEREAS, a small number of URJ congregations have been invited to take leadership on this issue by voting prior to the 2019 Biennial to propose a resolution on full inclusion at the 2021 Biennial.

WHEREAS, a draft of the resolution on full inclusion presently planned to be proposed at the 2021 Biennial is attached to this Board resolution (“Full Inclusion Resolution”).

WHEREAS, the full inclusion resolution that is proposed at the 2021 Biennial will be conceptually consistent but may differ in wording from the Full Inclusion Resolution.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Board hereby expresses its support for full inclusion of interfaith families and partners from different faith backgrounds as described in the Full Inclusion Resolution.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the Board hereby approves sponsoring and supporting the Full Inclusion Resolution at the 2021 Biennial, provided that any revision to the wording of the resolution is subject to further approval by the Board.

This resolution was adopted by the Board on _____, 2019.
